

Temecula Weekend Wine Planner

Printable one-day & two-day itineraries

$2 GUIDE • GOOD WINE. NO WHINE.

A simple plan so you spend the day tasting — not doom-scrolling maps in the parking lot.

Independent travel guide only. We do not sell wine or take reservations.

Confirm hours, fees, and policies on each winery's official site.

21+ for alcohol. Drink responsibly. Always keep a sober driver or rideshare plan.

Before you go (5 minutes)

- Pick one day or two days below — do not mix both into one Saturday.
- Cap tastings at 2–3 per day. Clusters beat checklists.
- Book Saturday seats the day before when you can.
- Eat a real meal before the first pour. Water between flights.
- Print this booklet or save the PDF offline on your phone.
- Live directory + map: bellieacreswine.com/wineries · /map

One perfect day (Saturday template)

Idea: Main-corridor morning → proper lunch → one contrast stop → done. Swap estates using the directory; keep drives short.

- 10:30–11:00 — Arrive valley; coffee/water; no heroics.
- 11:00–12:15 — Tasting 1 (spacious patio / easy on-ramp on or near Rancho California Rd).
- 12:30–1:45 — Real lunch (sit-down beats three hours of crackers).
- 2:15–3:30 — Tasting 2 (sparkling, view deck, or Rhône-leaning hillside — one mood).
- Optional 4:00 — Light third stop only if prior drives stayed under ~10 minutes.
- Evening — Old Town or wine-country dinner; stop early enough to sleep.

Two-day weekend (Fri night → Sun lunch)

Friday — Decompress, not collect stamps.

- Check in, unpack, eat first.
- Optional: one nearby resort-style or patio stop only.
- In bed at a human hour.

Saturday — Use the One Perfect Day template above.

Sunday — Quieter corridors, then exit clear-headed.

- 10:30 — East-valley / De Portola or Calle Contento—area stop (often calmer than Saturday main road).
- 12:30 — Optional short second outdoor stop or view moment.
- 1:30+ — Drive home. No “one more for the road.”

Three ready-made vibes (swap names, keep the shape)

- Easy first-timers: Big patio → lunch → one scenic or sparkling stop.
- Romance / views: Hillside or view deck mid-day; keep the second stop quieter; sunset photos over a fourth pour.
- With kids or dogs: Outdoor-forward estates only; shorter flights; park-and-play buffers; confirm pet/kid policies the same morning.

Car checklist

- Sober driver or rideshare plan locked
- Water + light snacks
- Layers (patios change with wind)
- Reservation screenshots
- Sunscreen / hat (summer)
- Note app for “buy later” bottles (not everything you sipped)
- bellieacreswine.com bookmarked for swaps
